

ixigo launches inspirational travel plugin 'Inspire'

12th May 2016, New Delhi: Travel search marketplace ixigo has launched a Chrome extension called Inspire that compares travel deals across travel sites.

The plugin opens each new Google Chrome tab with a background photo of an inspiring destination from around the world along with an array of quotes.

While browsing on any online travel website, ixigo helps users find the best deals available in real-time with Inspire. Apart from this, the browser add-on helps in finding the cheapest deals on hotels and flights. The extension also offers unique features like PNR lookups and PNR confirmation predictions for trains from ixigo's website. The extension also acts as a one stop solution to manage all bookings.

Talking about this innovation, CTO and Co-Founder ixigo, Rajnish Kumar said, "ixigo aims at enhancing the end to end travel experience for our users. Not just do we want to provide you with the best travel deals, we also want to inspire and motivate you to travel. Each new browser tab now refreshes and informs you about a wonderful new destination to visit. At launch, we already have over two lakh users getting inspired to travel daily, and we expect this to become the default tab for five million travelers by the end of the year."
